Doctoral Position (75%) / Postdoctoral Position (100%)

Job description: We work theoretically and empirically (via experiments) on questions of institutions and morals, information design, and market engineering. You are free in choosing your own research topics, yet there should be some relation to our focus topics. Details you can find on https://polit.econ.kit.edu.

Our students mostly stem from the selective program of Economics and Engineering. The courses we teach cover topics from behavioral economics and market design. Teaching duties are as light as possible: As a doctoral student, you would be involved in 3x45 min. of teaching per week during the semester. As a postdoc, it would be 4x45 min. per week during the semester.

At the KIT, we have built up a state-of-the-art laboratory for economic experiments, the KD2 Lab, with 40 cubicles. Of course, you can use this facility.

Next to our local research seminar, we participate in regular workshops (HeiKaMax, HeiKaMaxY) with the universities of Heidelberg and Mannheim in order to foster the regional exchange, with a specific focus on behavioral economics.

Qualification: The following qualifications are required seeking your consideration for this position:

- Excellent academic results
- Interest in teaching game-theoretic and behavioral courses
- Team player
- Enthusiasm and professional attitude
- Reliable and independent worker
- Good communication skills
- Very good English language skills

We offer: We offer an attractive and modern workplace with access to excellent facilities of KIT, diverse and responsible tasks, a wide scope of advanced training options, supplementary pension with the VBL (Pension Authority for Employees in the Public Service Sector), flexible working time models, a job ticket (BW) allowance, and a cafeteria/canteen.

Salary: The remuneration occurs on the basis of the wage agreement of the civil service in TV-L, E13.

Institute: Institute of Economics, Chair of Political Economy

Contract duration: The position is limited to one year with the possibility of continuation according to the WissZeitVG (Fixed-Term Contracts in Science Act).
Starting date:
The position can start on April 1st, 2019

Application up to:
28.10.2018

Contact person in line-management:
For further information, please contact Sibille Hackel, email: polit.office@econ.kit.edu

Application:
Please apply by email to the secretary Sibille Hackel: polit.office@econ.kit.edu before October, 28th 2018, with standard documents (cover letter, CV, grades from Abitur or equivalent, university degrees). Applicants for a PhD position should ask their references to send at least one reference letter, postdoc applicants should make sure that three letters of reference are sent directly.

We prefer to balance the number of female and male employees. Therefore we kindly ask female applicants to apply for this job.

If qualified, handicapped applicants will be preferred.

KIT is certified as a family-friendly university (familienfreundliche Hochschule) and offers part-time employment, leaves for family-related reasons, dual career options, and individual coaching for family-work balance.